What has become of the order passed by the council over a year ago to have "Presbyterian" ally paved?

Tom Skinner, Jr., yesterday slipped near the horse collar factory on Fourth street and sprained his ankle.

Baker & Farron's company gave little satisfaction by their show here. The audience was better than the show, by far.

All walnut, Italian marble bed room suites $30, former price $75. A fact. Call and see A. J. Mandell, 325 Broadway.

This is my last week. Govern your self accordingly. Call at once and secure goods cheap while you can. H. E. SHAMMAN.

William Brix is said to be about to commence suit against the city on account of personal injuries caused by a defective sidewalk.

Grading has commenced on the K. C. about four miles from the city, the work being towards this city. This is under contract of Mr. King, of Des Moines.

It seems pretty well settled that there will be a change in the chieftainship of the fire department, but who will be Walters' successor, is a conundrum.

Rev. G. W. Crofts has joined in marriage, James H. Harding and Lizzie Proard, both of Carson; also C. A. Withrow and Miss Maggie Fitzgerald.

There will be a dance social given by the Harmony Mission society this evening at the residence of A. B. Enderton, corner of Harmony and Benton streets.

Yesterday Justice Schurz united in marriage Henry J. Clapper and Caroline Allborough. The groom is from Woodbury county, and the bride from this county.

Constable Reyburn, of Macdonia, who caused a stir among the saloon men last Fourth of July, is watched for eagerly again. He probably will not try it again, however.

The druggists of the city have organized for the purpose of making arrangements for entertaining the State Pharmaceutical society which holds its annual meeting here in May.

United States Marshal Root has contracted with the Masonic Temple association for the use of the court room for the United States court for two years, the annual rental to be $600.

The finishing touches of the paving on Broadway have been delayed by the lack of stone, which has been delayed in getting here. As soon as the stone arrives one day will finish the work.

The Bee is now a next door neighbor of the Herald, having moved to 12 Pearl street. We are right glad of it for we can borrow smoking tobacco of them now without the trouble of crossing the street to find the big men of The Bee—Council Bluffs Herald. Snuff's enough.

The Council Bluffs Bee force were all employed yesterday in moving into the new quarters nearly opposite The Bee's old quarters. When once settled down again and everything put to rights, The Bee will have as complete and convenient a newspaper and job office as could be desired.

One of the officers of the hospital in Omaha was over here yesterday looking after the parents of a boy named Rush who has been sick there, and who claims Council Bluffs is his home. The boy is a bootblack, and has now so far recovered from his illness as to be able to be around.

One of the evening papers fills up its space with a rumor about a man on lower Broadway attempting to rape a child, and the other evening paper fills up with a rumor of a man on upper Broadway brutally using a child. They must have worked the street from both ends yesterday, and finding nothing, set their imaginations at work.

L. M. Snyder, son of the county surveyor, A. C. Snyder, met his death by accident about a mile from Poria Tuesday evening. Several were together in a wagon, when the horses became frightened and ran. The younger Snyder was thrown out backward, the seat giving way. His head struck in such a manner as to cause almost instant death.

Fredrick Haken of Garnertownship, was in the city yesterday hunting for his hired man, August Fichle, whom he said had skipped out during the night taking with him $50 of money and some clothing belonging to the family. It was learned that the missing man had been here but had skipped for Omaha, and Mr. Haken went over there after him.

"Do you know," said a merchant yesterday, "that lots of folks who come in here to buy Easter cards ask me when Easter is, and I haven't found out myself yet?" For the benefit of such, therefore,

It is stated that Easter Sunday is April 5th, one week from next Sunday. Next Sunday, the 29th of March, is Palm Sunday, the following Thursday will be Holy Thursday, and the next day Good Friday—then comes Easter.

The sunset supplement of the old lady's scrapbook says the water works at the city building are out of gear. The only trouble is, as reported by the engineer, is that an excess of aqua in the compressor caused it to overflow, filling the pneumatic tube, while polarization setting in, the aqua congealed. Now the supplement's scientific man knowing all about it, will probably fix it. In the meantime the city will be duly protected from fire.

Dr. S. Mosher, of the Sioux City Chronic Disease Institute, will be at the Scott house in this city, Thursday, April 24. Will attend to patients and those who are afflicted will do well to give him a call. Consultation free.

SAFE AND CHEAP.

A Home Life Association With a "Guaranty Reserve."

The "Guaranty Life Association" of Des Moines, Iowa, is a home association, officered and controlled by true and tried men. Its plan is safe. The cost graded according to age, in experience with mortality tables, payable quarterly. All losses have been and will be paid in full by the "Guaranty." In that event the policies are as good as any in the world. Over four years successful business; has the largest number of policy holders at home of any association in Iowa, with branch offices in every county. A large list of business and professional men of Council Bluffs. The cost to carry a policy in the "Guaranty" is about one-fourth that charged by old line or level premium companies. Mr. Starnes, of Omaha, and Pansy's bank, is the branch secretary, who will tell you all about the "Guaranty." See him and learn more of a good, reliable home institution.

Out on Bail.

Thursday last a bail bond in the sum of $20,000, with sureties sworn to be worth several times that sum, was presented to the clerk of Audubon county by Thos. Boland, and in a short time thereafter the doors of the Audubon county jail were opened and Peter Ryan, charged with the murder of Kleever, came forth, and will remain at liberty until the August term of the Audubon county court, for which time his trial is set.

Ryan stayed in Audubon, sleeping at the Walker house, Thursday night, and Friday came to Atlantic. He was a caller at this office, and left the impression with us that a murderer's thought would have difficulty in finding a lodgment in his breast. He has grown pale from his confinement, but otherwise exhibits no bad effect therefrom. He thinks some of the newspapers have treated him harshly, especially those that have painted him as a red-handed desperado, never quailing until the arrival of such laws which hanged and killed Jefferson, Smyth and Wilson, was as his height. He expressed himself as very grateful to the part of the press that has treated him fairly, and says that all he wants is a fair show and a chance to prove his innocence, which he has not the least doubt he can do.

If Ryan is innocent, and there are many circumstances in the case tending to show that he is, we sincerely hope that he will have no difficulty in removing from his hands the stains of human blood which it is alleged have been found upon them. He will remain in this county until the trial, and will be there when the case is called, so he says, and we do not doubt it.—Atlantic Democrat.

The Council Bluffs Paint Manufacturer company will be soliciting orders in a few days. Wait for them.

The United States Court.

In the United States court yesterday, the jury in the case of Jackson & Hughes vs. A. C. Jones reported that they could not come to an agreement, and the judge discharged them.

The case of Redmond Cleary & Co. vs. Jacob M. Hines, et al., was finished and submitted to the jury yesterday afternoon.

The next case to be tried is that of James Davis vs. the Chicago & North-western railway company. Jimmie Davis is the boy who was run over by the cars some time ago and lost both legs. The present suit is for damages for these personal injuries. Supp. & Pussey represent the plaintiff and Judge Hubbard and Wright and Baldwin, the railway company.

COLD WATER ORATORY.

The Temperance Revival Now in Progress.

The presence in the city of Mr. George Woodford, of Illinois, the temperance worker and orator, has created much interest. There was some prejudice excited by the report that he had come here to lead the prohibitionists in an active fight to close the saloons by injunctions under the recent decision of the supreme court. The fact that the rendering of this decision was immediately followed by Mr. Woodford's appearance in the city, gave color to the report, but it seems that arrangements for his coming were made last January and the time fixed, without any regard to the recent decision, the purpose being to have a temperance revival, and get as many to take the pledge as possible.

Mr. Woodford has drawn crowded houses, and his addresses have been interesting to saint and sinner alike. He has a wonderful fund of anecdotes and illustrations, and he knows well how to use them, so that he holds the attention of his hearers closely, and presses his points home cleverly. He tackles the temperance question from all points, and there is great variety in his methods of treating it. His talks to boys show that he has been a boy himself, and that he has not forgotten it.

He is very earnest, a rapid speaker, and with all his enthusiasm is not one-sided and unreasonable, as many who appear before the public in a like capacity. He is what is termed a reformed man, having himself been addicted to drink for many years. Mr. Woodford will remain here through the week and hold meetings each evening in the Presbyterian church. A large number of persons have signed the pledge, but how many have been drinkers, it is not easy to determine, as under his policy, all are urged to sign, whether they are in the habit of drinking or not, the sober to give help and encouragement to those who are not sober.

Death of Sister Mary Nicholas.

Death seems to have marked the slitherhood of St. Francis academy for its victims. Within a few months two worthy members of the order have been called from earth, and yesterday afternoon the immortal spirit of Sister Mary Nicholas, the mother superior, joined the heavenly hosts. She had been ailing about three months, and the efforts and skill of the best medical men to stay the progress of the disease were unavailing. Surrounded by many friends, the ministers of the church and her sorrowing brother and sister, the last hours of life were peaceful and painless.

Sister Nicholas was a model type of a noble order of educators. Possessing a thorough education, uncommon ability as a manager and a gentle, winning disposition, she made St. Francis academy one of the best young lady seminaries in the west. The growth of the institution in the last few years has been very great, and to the consequent increase of labor is due her early demise. The announcement of her death will send a pang to many a home, not only in Council Bluffs and Omaha, but in surrounding towns and cities, and tears will spring unbidden to the eyes of scores of young ladies who had known, loved and revered her as a mother.

The funeral will take place Saturday morning at 10 o'clock.

The New Church.

The work on the new Episcopal church will proceed this season, and it is believed that the liberality and enterprise of the members and friends will result in the putting up of a building which will be a credit to the city as well as to the church organization. Arrangements are being made for the laying of the cornerstone one week from Wednesday, at which time it is expected that Bishop Perry will be here. The event will be one of great interest.
